Mr. P. S. Heaton,

Dear Sir:-

In settling up last year's accounts, we came across yours for coins purchased at auction April 16th and 17th on which you claimed that errors had been made in three lots and which we proved if error had been made, was entirely your fault, sending you your bid sheet to show that you made the errors, not us. However, we desire to close the matter up and clear up the account. Your objection was to No. 93 on which you bid $1.60 and which was purchased at $1.30. This lot we remove entirely from your bill. The next objection was to lot 469 on which you bid $2.70 purchased at $2.25. This lot we remove entirely from your bill. Lot 1170 is the next lot to which you raised objection and on which you bid 26¢, purchased at the same. You stated your bid was 20¢. We reduce this lot to the amount of your bid, 20¢. This makes the bill entirely as you wish it to be and we would ask you to send us Post Office Money Order by return of mail and let us know to what address to send the goods, as the Express Company will not deliver to General delivery, as no one would be there to sign for it and the post Office would not receive it. We have been very liberal in this matter and would thank you to give it your immediate attention, as we have already paid out the money for the coins.

Yours respectfully,

S. H. & H. Chapman
